Herein—between these covers is presented a record of a year at West Georgia College, a record of moments of pleasure, moments of work, moments of doubt, and best of all—moments of supreme satisfaction gained through the effort that we as students have put forth.

Let this book be like an old friend—one that can in the future tell you of those wonderful days at West Georgia College.

THE CHIEFTAIN

EDITORS BETTIS, ANTHONY and HAY at work.

Classes cut, sleep and friends lost, decisions to make, grades in a spin, compulsology missed—these are the things we fought. But on our side was the hope that each of you would be pleased with THE CHIEFTAIN for '48.

There were so many who contributed to make this book a success—Mr. Adams, our faculty advisor; Mr. Gaspar, our photographer; Mr. Wallace, our art advisor; Johnny Long, publisher; and all those who contributed snaps and advice—all these and many others helped to make this book possible.

Here is the architect's conception of what is coming to our campus. In the future, this building—a boys' dormitory—is to be erected on the campus below the library.

THE RAT REVIEW

Better smile while you can.

Pick on someone your size.

"49th" coat of paint.

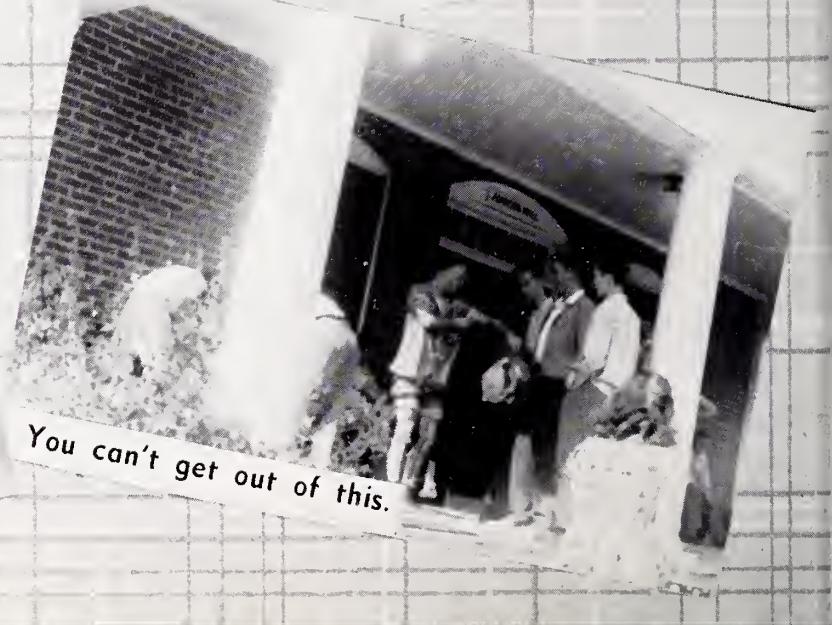

Well-dressed.

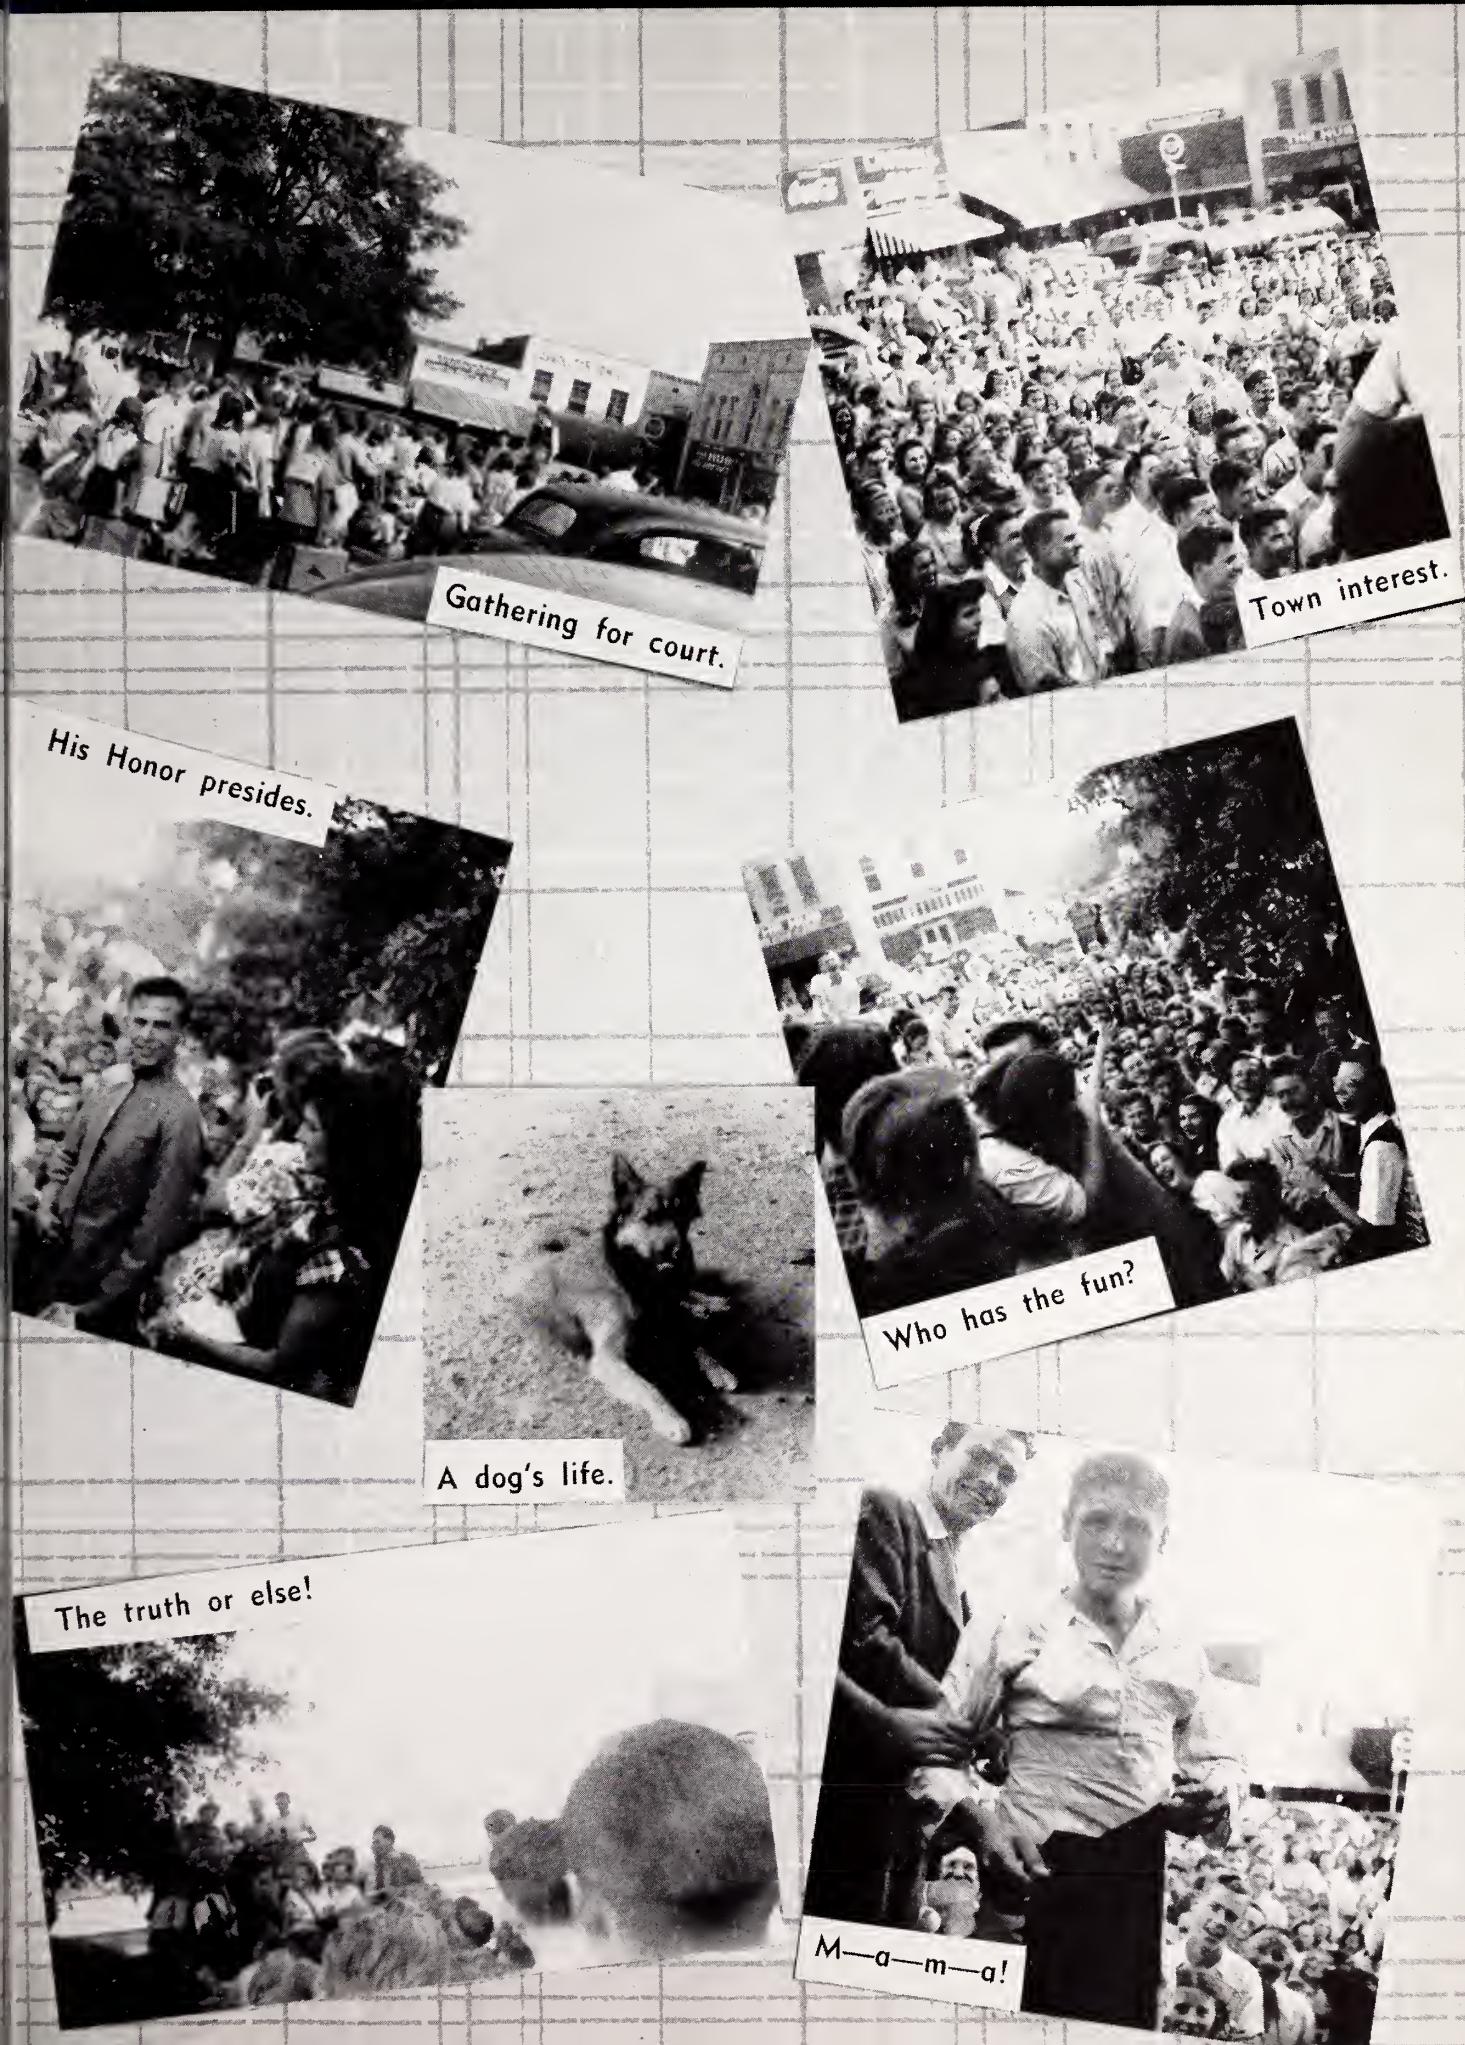

They're Off!

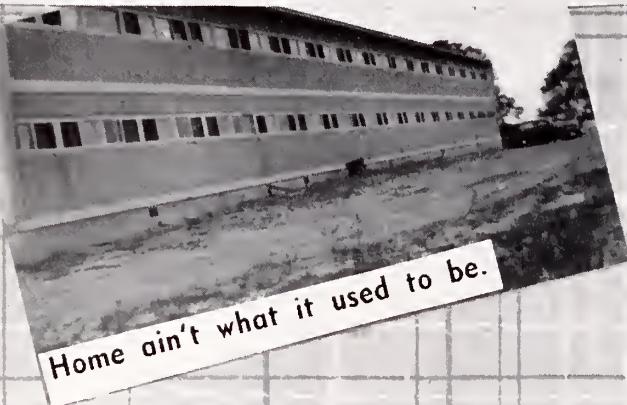

You can't get out of this.

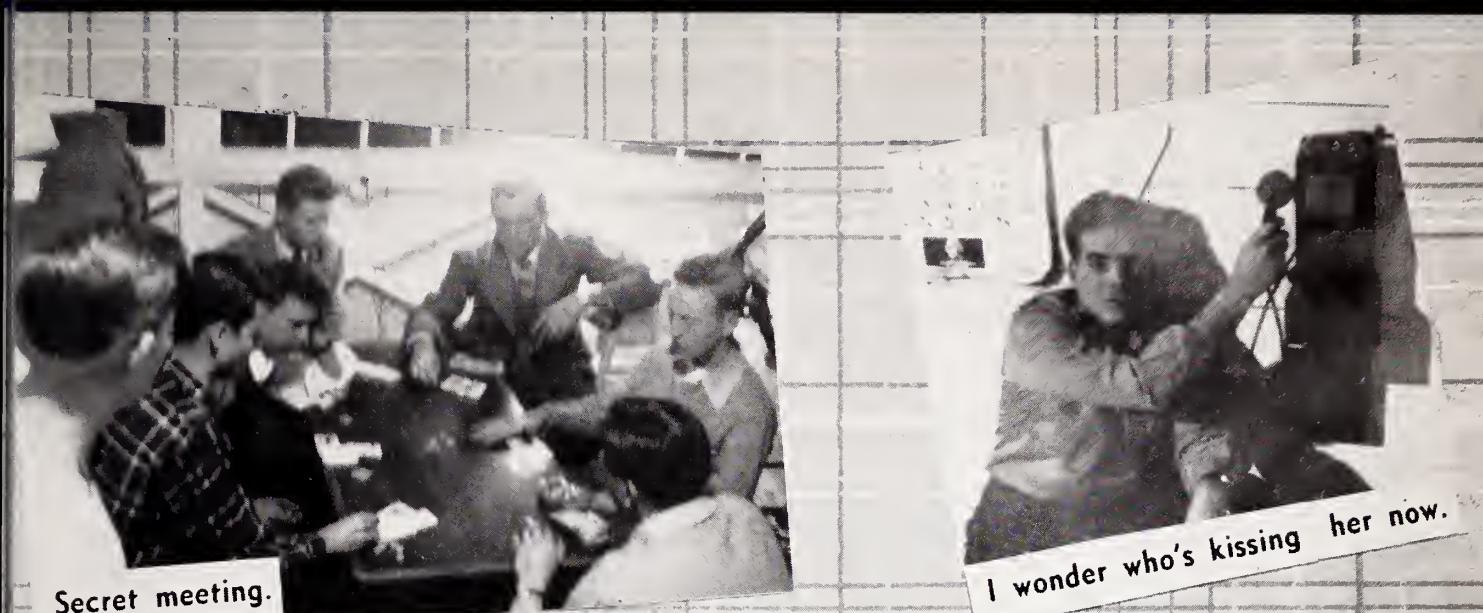

Where's Kilroy?

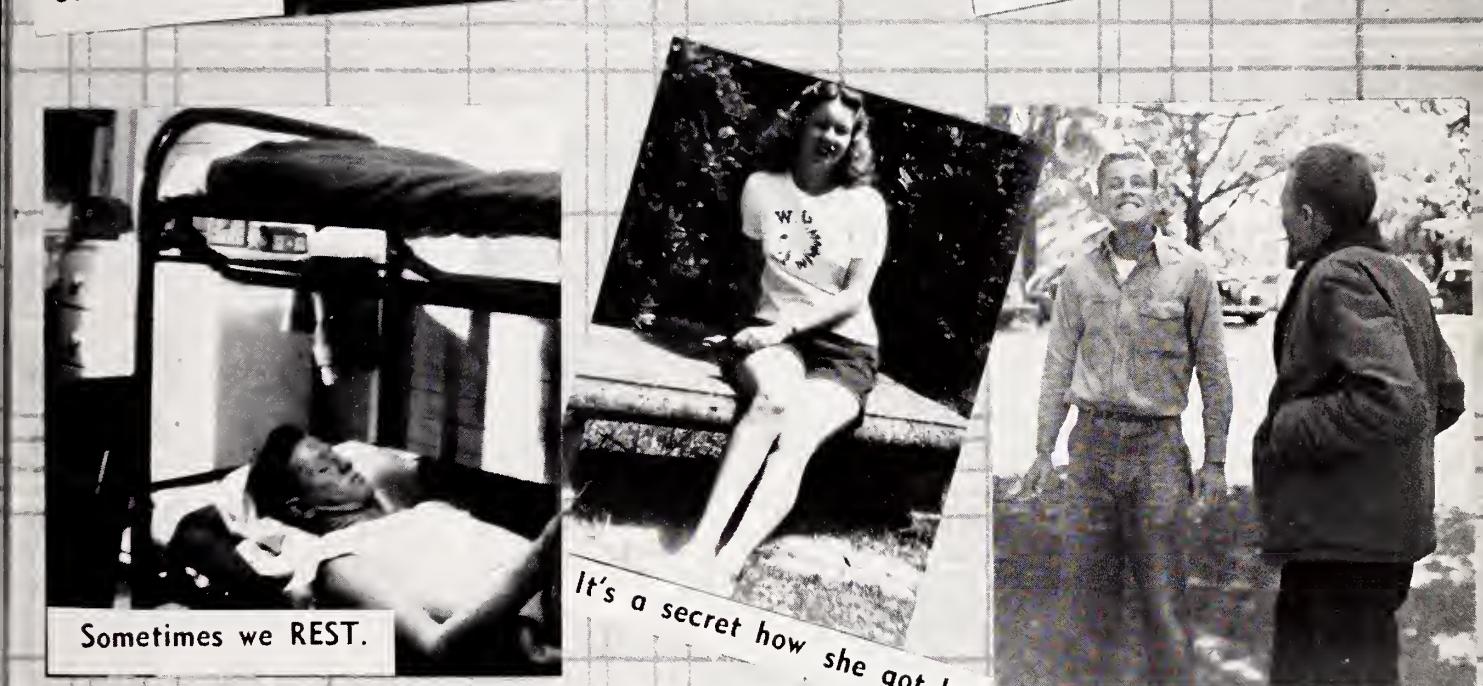

LIFE ON THE HILL

I wonder who's kissing her now.

That Pepsodent SMILE.

Another secret meeting.

The pose that refreshes.

What! Again!

The Great Snow of '03.

Love letters.

Beats me!

B-o-y-a-n-g.

Pleasant smile.

Heave Ho!

Is this a LADY?
Come Pool!

Gift from the proud papa.

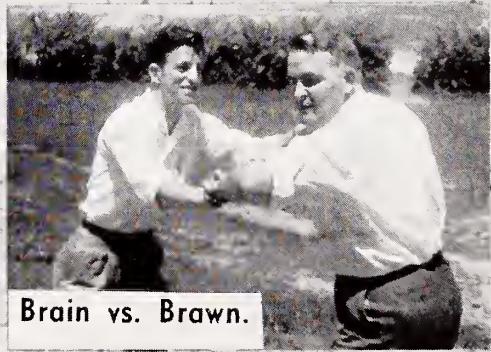

La petite.

Four little ??? out on a spree.

Everything stops for tea.

Brain vs. Brawn.

Mammalus humanus.

Who believes in signs?

PLEASE DO NOT ENTER
WITHOUT PERMISSION OF NIGHT WATCHMAN

Life is such a bore.

Mother Shannon.

Cozy, isn't it?

Sometimes we eat.

SPAGHETTI and meat ball.

The domestic type.

Even the best must rest.

Take two—they're small.

Legs to spare.

"The New Look—

There's a Ford in your future.

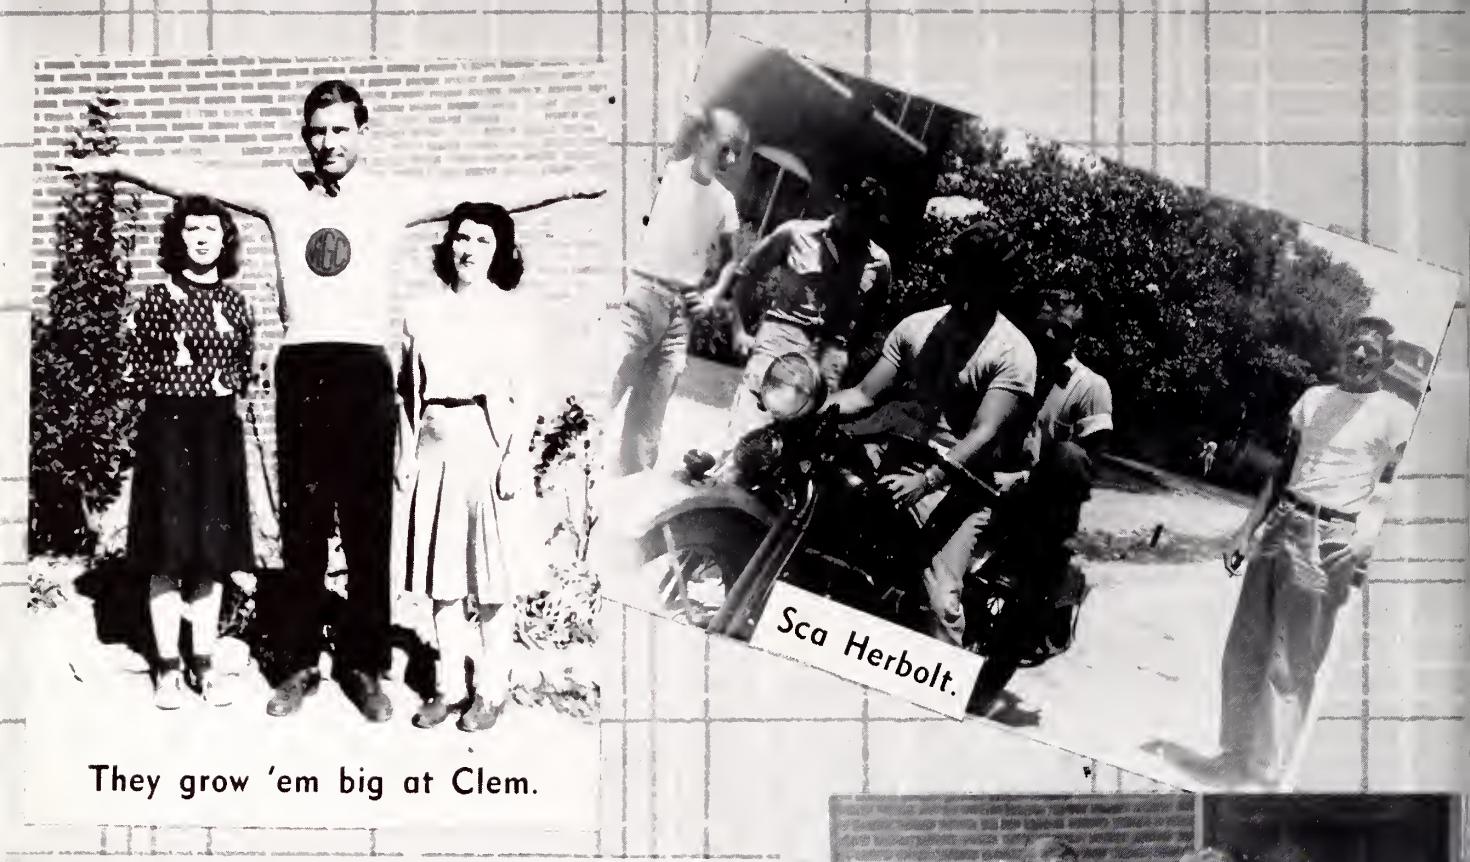

Carolyn and friend.

Tippin' in.

They just can't stay away.

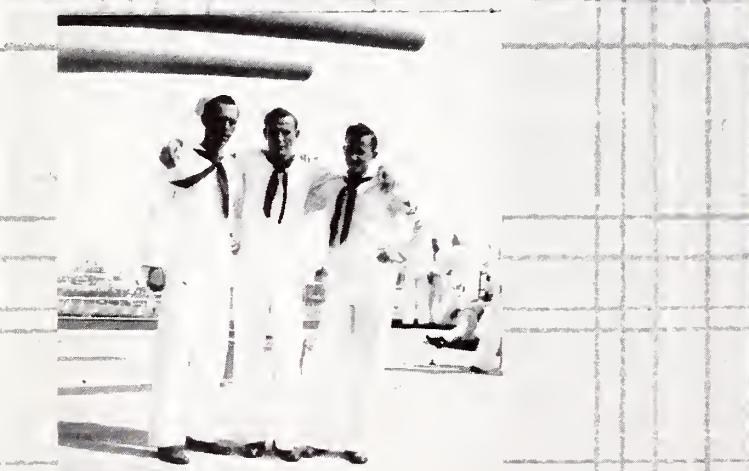

They grow 'em big at Clem.

High on a windy hill.

You gotta be a football hero.

Three of a kind.

And there I was!

Reflection.

Abbott and Costello.

It's his sister.

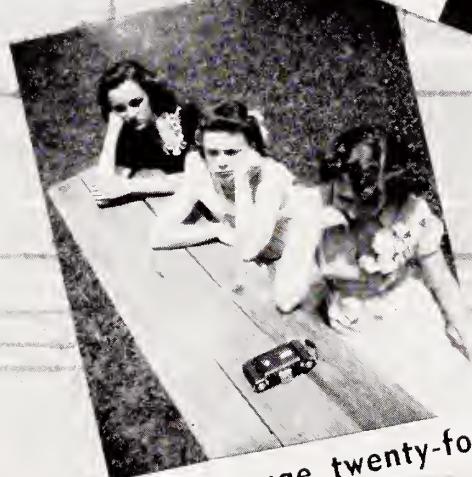

Cram!

Oh, year!

WHERE THE HEART IS

High-tone snobs.

"I'm going to fight you, Marshall."

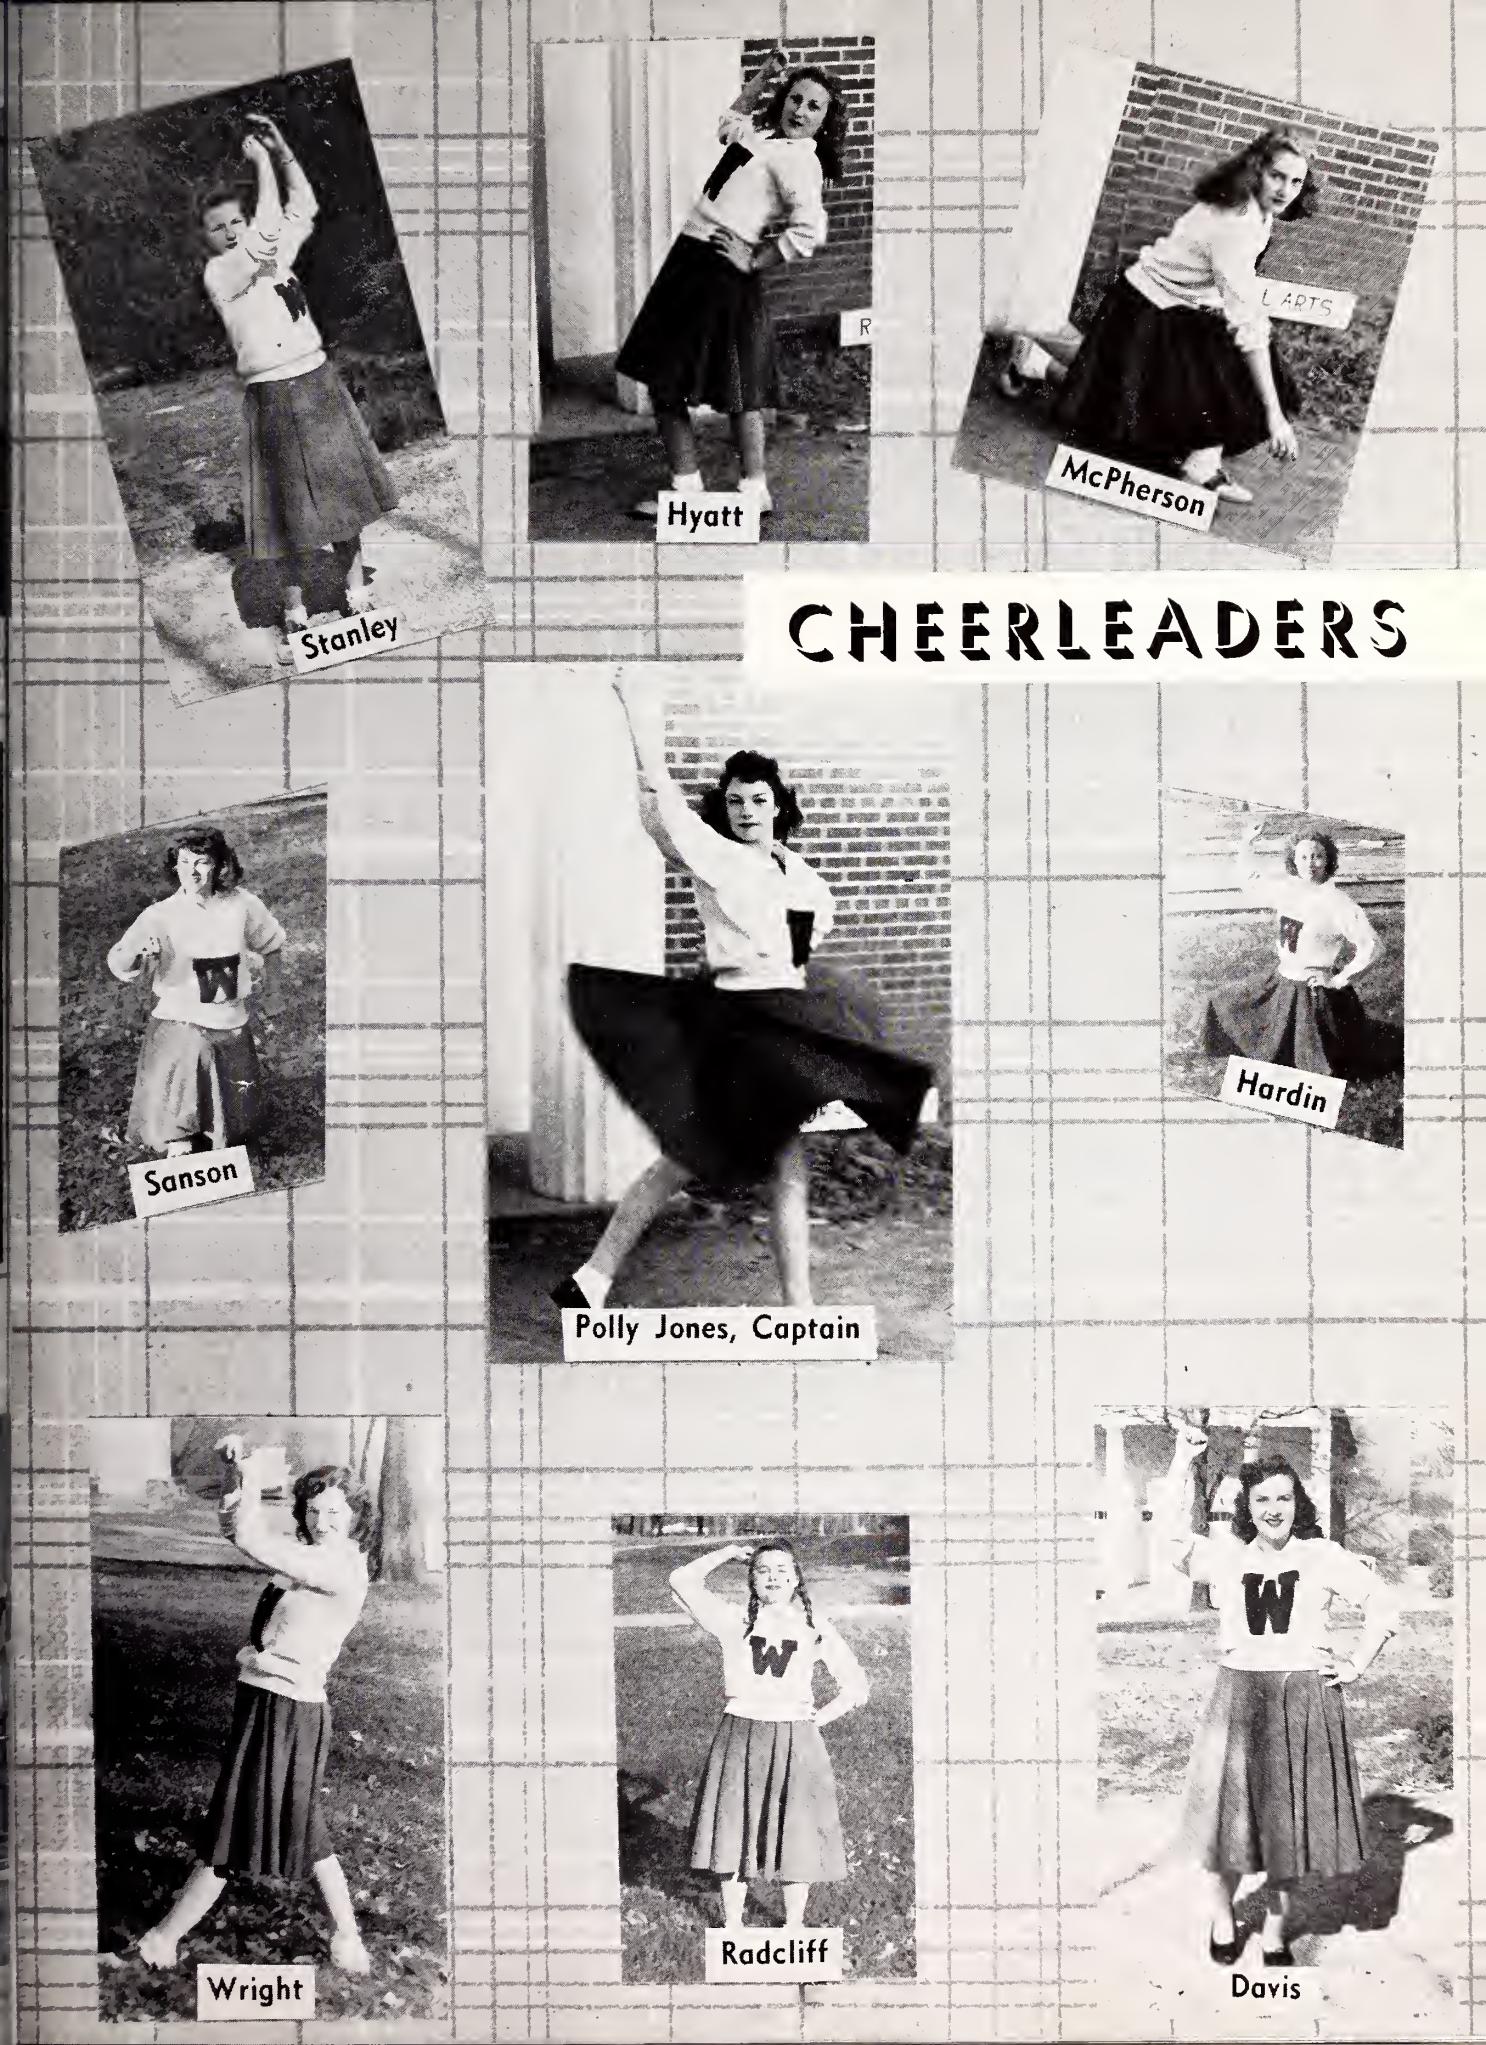

"Oh, Rob, I'm so in love with you."

"I'm not gonna take this!"

"Oh, excuse me!"

LEADERSHIP - FRIENDSHIP - SERVICE

A leading organization on the campus is Alpha Phi Omega, National Service Fraternity. Epsilon Eta Chapter, organized April 24, 1947, was installed June 20, 1947, as the first junior college chapter in the nation. Membership in the fraternity is open to any former scout possessing the desire to render service to others . . . to the student body and faculty, to the community and to the nation as participating citizens.

A PREVIEW...

Ray reaches high . . .

Jenkins at center . . .

West Georgia's second hatching of fightin' Braves opened the '47 gridiron season with an up-and-coming game against the military men from Georgia Military College that was a preview of things to come. Outstanding were Buck Stamps, Angelo Grenga in the quarterback slot, and Bartow Jenkins as line-backer. . . . West Georgia's TD was scored by Stamps on an off-tackle slant in the third quarter. Thrill of the game came when Bill Maier blocked a G. M. C. punt and almost broke loose for a touchdown.

Angelo holds for Johnny.

Sawyer, Ramos . . . "ready".

GROWING PAINS . . .

KELLY GRENGA
All-State Junior College
Fullback

An anti-climax came the following week when the Braves hit low stride against mighty Tennessee Wesleyan. Things weren't helped any by an epidemic of food poisoning that ran amuck among the entire squad.

TENNESSEE WESLEYAN (44) WEST GEORGIA COLLEGE (0)

Ol' man weather plus numerous injuries retained from the Wesleyan fracas spelled the difference against Gordon's tricky "T", in spite of the spirited offensive drives of Kelly Grenga.
GORDON (26) WEST GEORGIA COLLEGE (0)

Things began to look better in the game with Middle Georgia, though McCoy, Patterson, Angelo Grenga and others were still on the injured list. Middle Georgia's "T" edged out the Braves in a battle before stands packed with partisan fans.

The Braves hit their expected stride against the Darlington Tigers in an event that featured a spectacular 40-yard TD pass from A. Grenga to Bill Smith. The Tigers' rated running back, Jake Rudolph, was stopped cold.

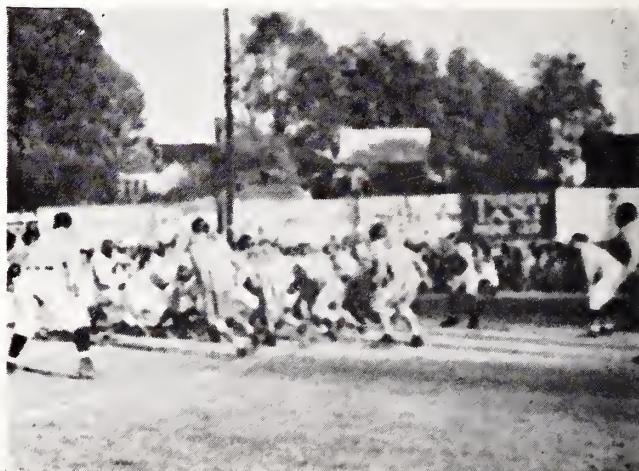

WEST GEORGIA COLLEGE (7) D ARLINGTON (7)

The West Georgia gang dumped Troy State in what could be conservatively called an "upset." All of this, even though the squad was down to its lowest level, created a situation expected to be a demoralizing factor. Robinson shone as he caught passes thrown by Grenga. The lad was especially outstanding when in one instance he faked a lateral, which completely fooled the defensive halfback, and raced 35 yards for a TD. Receipts from the game were for the benefit of the Dothan Lions' Blind Fund.

Once again a muddy field was a factor in a W. G. C. game, but this time the situation was different as the Braves romped over the boys from St. Bernard. Buck Stamps received a lateral from Angelo Grenga in the first quarter and scored on a new play especially designed to hit pay dirt. The second touchdown was made by Kelley Grenga on a 9-yard off-tackle dash.

WEST GEORGIA COLLEGE (12) ST. BERNARD (6)

Though they came out on the short end of the score, the Braves played one of their outstanding games toward the end of the season against Jacksonville State Teachers. The first W.G.C. tally was made by Stamps on a 35-yard dash from inside tackle in the second quarter. Buck hit pay dirt again on a lateral from Grenga in the third.

JACKSONVILLE (31) WEST GEORGIA COLLEGE (12)

Last game of the regular season was a thrill-packed "Thanksgiving Day Special" against a highly rated South Georgia team, played before what was probably the largest crowd ever to witness a gridiron event in Carrollton. The Braves put on a bit of "azzle-dazzle" reminiscent of the famous Yellow Jackets of Georgia Tech as Angelo Grenga looped the ball to Buck Stamps from the South Georgia 15-yard line for a W. G. C. tally in the first period. The same combination of fellows did it again in the final quarter, this time from the ten. South Georgia received the ball deep in the Braves' territory in the fourth period by virtue of a pass ruled complete, though it appeared to many to be a West Georgia interception. After a 15-yard penalty which put the visitors still deeper in the defending team's territory, South Georgia scored, and the game ended shortly afterwards.

TOBACCO

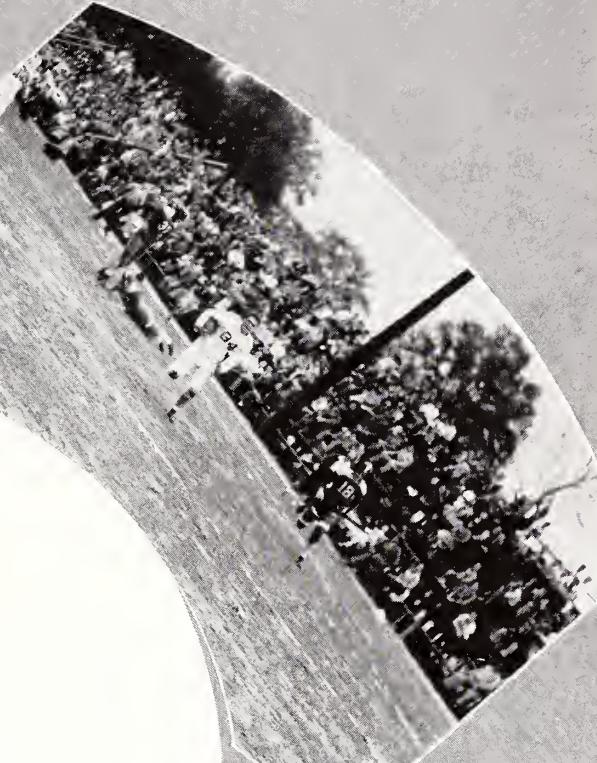

TOBACCO

The Braves polished off a fitting close to a great season when they created "Tobacco Bowl" in Tifton, Georgia, after defeating Norman fracas, but, for one reason or another, refused. The first W. G. C. on a short plunge over left tackle from the two-yard line in the yards or more by the same gentleman. Pity the poor field judge who off left tackle. The second touchdown was scored on a pass from defensive men on his way over from the ten. Ray kicked the extra "scored" by Angelo Grenga on a punt return of 80 yards, but was Robinson with an intercepted pass. This one was called back because This time the score was called back because of a ruling that Robinson Goza. South Georgia was invited to be the Braves' opponent in the touchdown was made by the team's new bridegroom, Kelly Grenga, first quarter. This trip into pay dirt was set up by two runs of twenty got in Kelly's way! "Tip" Goza also had a part with a 25-yard gain Angelo Grenga to Ray Robison, who stiff-armed two Norman Park point. West Georgia had three touchdowns called back. One was nullified by a clipping penalty. Another was "scored" by Johnny of offides. Goza took a lateral from Robinson for number three. did not have full possession of the ball at the time that he lateraled to received by Coach Wheby of how completely taken the townspeople of Bowl will continue to pit two fine junior college teams against each other.
